Choralettes Present Concert

8 Dec 1984

The Choralettes will be presenting a "A Special Night" as their annual Christmas Concert. The performance will be held this Saturday Dec. 8, at 7:30 at the Wasatch High School Auditorium.

Some old favorites will be sung, and also some new songs. The Choralettes have been performing almost 30 years now, as a community service. A lot of time, love, dedication, and talent has gone into this years concert, and it is the Choralettes special gift to the community. There is no charge for the concert and we the Choralettes would like to extend a warm invitation to everyone to come share this "Special Night" with us.

their descendants have kept alive the tradition. Some of the first members includes James Shanks and Elisha Averett, leaders; Joseph M. Smith, A. Y. Duke, Dick Danielson, Lon Smith and Orrin Smith were early members, Robert Duke, Robert McKnight and Will Thacker, snare drummers and John Duke Jr., bass drummer. Descendants of these performers and others have kept the band alive during nearly a century of performing at holiday celebrations and patriotic occasions. More recent members of the group include Lon Smith, Seymour and Sterl Duke, Earl Dayton and Lowell Johnson.

The Heber Brass Band was also organized very early by the early settlers. It was organized with ten members and Thomas Perry who played a piano was the leader. Their pictures, Roger Horrocks, Robert McKnight, Thomas Perry, Alexander Fortie, Fred Clegg, Joseph A. Murdock, Dick Duke and Dr. Glanville, was taken with a pioneer old-folks party group in 1883. This band as the Martial Band was noted for
